III. READING

F. Read the following paragraph and answer the questions.

An endangered language is a language that has very few speakers. Nowadays, many languages are losing their native speakers. When a language dies, the knowledge and culture disappear with it. A lot of endangered languages are in Australia and South America. Some of them are in Asia and Africa. The number of live languages of the world is around 7000, and many of them may not exist in the future. Many researchers are now trying to protect endangered languages. This can save lots of information and cultural values of people all around the world.

There is one extra main idea:  a. addiction to technology b. The harmful effects of using technology c. ways to cure technology addicts  20.Using technology in a wrong way has created bad habits and new types of addictions. It is not strange now to call someone an Internet or mobile addict. Technology addicts are people with serious problems to control themselves to use various kinds of technology, in particular the Internet, smartphones, tablets and laptops. Technology addicts do not like to socialize with people; instead, they prefer to be alone and spend lots of their time working with their devices. This makes them depressed and impatient. 21.Specialists have found different ways to cure technology addicts. To avoid this type of addiction, people should spend more time with their friends and family members, do daily exercise, and limit the time of working with technologies. They also need to enjoy nature more and have regular plans to travel.	0.5
H. Read the text and choose T(True) or F(false). All languages have their own rules for forming words and for ordering those words into meaningful sentences. Many deaf and dumb people around the world use sign languages to express their emotions, exchange information or, in order words, to communicate with each other as fast as they can. Word order is more important in English than it is in some other language such as Russian. The sound system is very important in Chinese and in many languages in West Africa. Languages are always changing, but they change very slowly. Today, fifty percent of the world's population speaks one of the top fifteen languages. The world's most common language is Mandarin Chinese, which has more than 1 billion speakers. English is the international language for science and business. In fact, English has more second language speakers than first language speakers. 22. deaf and dumb people can't express their emotions: T F 23. Word order in Russian is as important as in English. T F 24. Languages don't change quickly. T F 25: Learning English is important because it is used for science and business around the world. T F	2
